

RSCM Bristol and Swindon Area Event

Aged voices, ever singing !

or

Make the most of your voice

an evening event for singers of all ages and for choir trainers with

Hilary Llystyn Jones (International vocal coach)

Colerne Church, (nr. Chippenham) Wiltshire SN14 8DF

Monday 30th June 2008, 7.30pm-9.30pm

Hilary Llystyn Jones is widely known for training many cathedral choristers here in England as well as in America, Sweden and Norway. She is in demand as a teacher of all ages, training professionals and amateurs, as well as coaching several choirs in this country and abroad including the RSCM Millennium Youth Choir. In 2002 Hilary was made an Associate of the RSCM and, in 2006, an Honorary Member of the Guild of Church Musicians for her contribution to music and worship in the church. Singers who have experienced Hilary's workshops can testify that they are on the one hand enormous fun, and on the other, can be life-changing or at least voice-changing!
