

RSCM BRISTOL AND SWINDON AREA

Registered Charity 312828

Sing with the Band!

Saturday 27 February, 2010

St Alban's Church, Coldharbour Road

Westbury Park, Bristol BS6 7QB

2 – 5pm

The Flowers Brass Band from Gloucester are coming to Bristol for this workshop with 100+ singers as part of the Bristol Brass Festival. The local RSCM is keen to 'evangelise' the brass band movement and to encourage future partnerships.

Choirs and individuals are invited to attend for a rousing session of singing. Six choral conductors who would like to take part will be encouraged to step forward to conduct the band and massed choir for a favourite hymn or anthem!

Music includes:

I was glad – Parry

Wondrous Love – Wilby

The heavens are telling – Haydn

plus

Well known Hymn Arrangements from the Black Dyke Red and Blue hymn books

Organ and band item whilst the singers have a breather

If you would like to take part, please email Andrew Kirk:

awkirk\_uk@yahoo.co.uk

or Trevor Day: trevor.day@btinternet.com

before Friday 19 February 2010

Cost £3 per head (free for under 18s) payable on arrival on the day.

Event promoted by the Royal School of Church Music Bristol and Swindon Committee, Professor Philip Wilby and the Gloucester Flowers Band